Celebrated NORR Courthouse Project Wins 3rd Award 2009 OAA Award in Design Excellence

TORONTO, March, 2009 - The Ontario Association of Architects (OAA) recently announced the winners of their annual awards program which recognizes achieving design excellence. NORR's work on the Renfrew County Courthouse Renovation and Addition Project, led by design architect, NORR Partner David Clusiau, was recognized with an OAA Award of Excellence.

"Receiving this recognition from the OAA and our professional peers is a great honour," said Silvio Baldassarra, Senior Vice President of NORR, "This was a very rewarding project and we are grateful to our clients, the Ontario Realty Corporation and The Ministry of the Attorney General, for their thoughtful collaboration and support during the renovation and addition to the courthouse."

The Renfrew County Courthouse Renovation and Addition Project previously won an Interior Design Award of Merit from the Association of Registered Interior Designers of Ontario (ARIDO) and a Certificate of Merit from the American Institution of Architects Committee on Architecture for Justice.
